RULES

The starting number has to be worn visibly on the chest. Changing of numbers is prohibited. All runners have to follow the given course (a cyclist will lead the front runners). There are enough marshals on the course. Deviation from the course will lead to disqualification. In doubtful cases the competition judges will decide. The accurately measured course is marked every kilometre.

LIABILITY

The arranger of the event cannot be made liable in cases of accident, theft, or in other cases. Everybody will start on his own risk.

COURSE

The race will be held at a round course, 1 lap, nearly flat. See sketch on the websites.

CHANGING FACILITIES

Changing rooms and showers for the runners are situated in a gym-hall close to the fire-station.
